We give thanks to God for our church's beautifully renovated patio space. Henry Webb, one of our FSP members, has been hard at work planning, organizing, and implementing the renovations as part of his Eagle Scout project. New flowers and grasses, a walking path, and a beautiful new rock garden adorn the outdoor space. Following the worship service on May 21, a brief service of rededication and blessing of the patio was held, complete with ribbon-cutting. We are excited to be able to use this space for future events and activities at FSP, including this year's Dearborn Garden Walk. Thanks to you, Henry, and your group of dedicated volunteers!

Preparing the Way for the Reformation

*For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return there until they have watered the earth,
making it bring forth and sprout,
giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater,
so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth;
it shall not return to me empty,
but it shall accomplish that which I purpose,
and succeed in the thing for which I sent it.*
—Isaiah 55.10, 11

As we celebrate the 500th anniversary of the Reformation, it's important to keep in mind the things that helped prepare the way. Long before Jesus, the spread of the Greek language and the Roman roads that connected diverse people helped the Gospel spread rapidly. Similarly, the Reformer Martin Luther benefited from the work of those who preceded him.

Many do not know that John Huss (Jan Hus), a Czech priest who lived over a century before Luther, was saying a lot of the same things. But, as my historical theology professor said in Seminary, the wind of change was blowing against him. When Luther began to write, the wind of change carried his message like a gale. The Gutenberg press (1440; replica pictured right) was invented a generation before Luther. Scribes would spend over 20 years copying a Bible. Now, many Bibles could be printed in just a matter of weeks.

Wartburg Castle, located in Eisenach, Germany.

So in 1530, when Luther was secretly taken to safety at Wartburg Castle and was in hiding, everything seemed to have come together for him. He would not only translate the Bible into German, but also make it widely available. Luther's translation would invent High German and unite people who spoke at least 18 dialects. The Word of God in that part of the world could now be understood without having to learn Latin, Greek, or Hebrew.

When I was at the Wartburg Castle this spring, I learned that Luther benefited from the nearly 500 year history of the castle itself. The builder, Ludwig der Springer, found a spot on a hill and supposedly spoke to God and the mountain and said, "Just wait and see what I'm going to build!" As I stood in that same place nearly a thousand years later, I could imagine Luther looking over the landscape when he would take breaks from his translation. I could imagine him gazing out into the world and prayerfully saying, "Just wait and see what the Word of God will do!" Our heritage should not only make us grateful for the Reformation but also propel us forward in confidence and mission that God is still working to transform lives and society itself.

Pastor Johnson

Fruit Of The Spirit

Galatians 5:22-23

Come Explore the Fruit of the Spirit in Our Summer Faith Nurturing Session

What role does discipleship play in connecting who we are with ways that we can live life together? An interesting definition for community is - 'Household' - "those who call on the name of Jesus as well as those who need to find shelter within them." The word "household" was used in the book of Acts to describe when whole families were baptized. This definition connects with our First Saint Paul's motto: "We welcome you to be at home among us." So how can we continue to grow as a family of those who call on the name of Jesus and invite others in need of shelter to make their home among us? Who is God calling us to welcome into our family? Who are the people God causes to cross your path daily and how does the Holy Spirit call and equip us to reach out and connect with those who might be in need of finding shelter among us? Let's find out together this summer as we learn about the Fruit of the Spirit and how God is equipping us to proclaim Christ, nurture faith, and serve others. Some benefits of summer session include: nurturing faith by studying God's Word together, making new friends and creating 9 new art pieces for prayer stations, and packing school kits for Lutheran World Relief. We will meet in the fellowship hall following the service as household groups beginning June 11. Materials will be made available so you can keep up with us wherever your travels take you this summer. Our schedule can be found on the next page. Let's see what adventures God has planned for us together!

As part of the summer program, households will receive a bank to help save for a Change for Change collection in worship on Sunday, August 27. Funds raised will help purchase School Kit materials for Lutheran World Relief. We will assemble the kits on September 10 as part of the Fall Program Kick-Off.

Help name the pig! Submit names by responding to the Facebook post on the pig! Names can also be submitted on slips of paper found on the front table in the narthex until June 18.

God's continued blessings as we journey together this side of heaven,

Marlo Schulz-Kittl

Easter Breakfast

About 300 attended our Divine Service on Easter Sunday with over one-third staying to partake of the lovely Easter buffet breakfast. Special thanks to all those who cooked, baked, shopped, decorated, publicized the event, brought food, supplied table decorations, and helped with set-up and clean up. Our youngest attendees were treated to an Easter egg hunt on the patio initiated by the junior and senior high school students.

BEER AND WINE MAKING DEMONSTRATION WITH PASTOR JOHNSON

Did you know that the Reformer, Martin Luther, said he missed his wife Katy's homemade beer every time he traveled?

This past May, Pastor Johnson and others demonstrated the beer and wine-making process step by step. Following our Sunday worship service and artistic presentations by various Artists of First Saint Paul's, we met in the church Fellowship Hall for a hearty lunch together while watching these fascinating demonstrations. We will enjoy the beer and wine we made together at the church picnic, Oktoberfest and other events later this year.

Pentecost Celebrations from June 4

Pentecost is the third great festival of the Christian year. On the first Christian Day of Pentecost, about 50 days after Easter, there came, hovering over the eleven disciples gathered together in Jerusalem, the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in the form of tongues of fire. On that day, the disciples were strengthened and empowered by the fulfillment of the promise of the Holy Spirit, which had been given them by the risen Lord.

Pentecost is regarded as the birthday of the Church, for on that day about 3,000 were reported to have been added to the fellowship of the disciples, with the injunction to repent and to be baptized in the name of Jesus. This initial large influx of converts, those who came out of the stirring events of Pentecost, “continued steadfastly in the apostles’ doctrine and fellowship, in the breaking of bread and in prayers”.

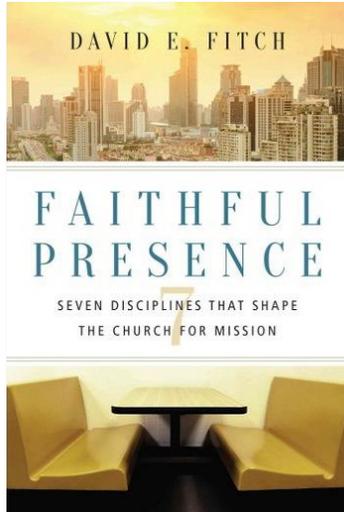

The liturgical color for the day is red, a reminder of the tongues of fire and also of the blood of the martyrs. As a symbol of the day we tied red strips of ribbon on the fence around the building symbolizing the fiery tongues of the Holy Spirit. Many members also took the opportunity to honor loved ones by purchasing red geraniums to be displayed in the sanctuary. We celebrated with a “birthday” cake during fellowship hour.

Tuesday Evening Bible Study Looking forward to Fall

This summer, the Tuesday Evening Home Bible Study is reading Faithful Presence: Seven Disciplines that Shape the Church for Mission by David E. Fitch. We plan to discuss it in the fall when we resume our Tuesday studies on September 5th.

Would you like to join us? You can obtain a digital, hard copy or audio CD from Amazon.

In our study together of Luke, Matthew, Mark, John, Acts, Grace Without God: The Search for Meaning, Purpose, and Belonging in a Secular Age by Katherine Ozment, and Jeremiah, we continue to ask, “How can we become the good news in our communities and our culture?”

We welcome you to explore this question with us this fall, guided by Pastor Fitch’s engaging stories of his own journey with his church, his family and his community in Faithful Presence.

Check out YouTube for an introduction to the book and David Fitch at www.youtube.com/watch?v=LVVdAxtqCMQ and www.youtube.com/watch?v=rEQiEzxsfgk (begins at 5:00 “presence is the way God works”).

We welcome you to join the discussion! Contact Dan Hendricksen (danarts@me.com or 774-844-7361) or Amy Hendricksen (ahendricksen2@aol.com or 773-383-5477) for more information.

Thursday Night Book Club

Summer Book & Schedule

You are invited to enjoy fellowship and a guided discussion biweekly on Thursday evenings from 7-8:30PM at FSP beginning July 6. The book selected for the summer is Rosa Young's Light in the Dark Belt, the inspiring story of Rosa Young, who labored tirelessly to establish Christian schools throughout the Deep South. Rosa's passion for education led her to influence the founding of 30 Lutheran schools, 35 congregations, and Concordia College Alabama. An advocate for children she touched the lives of more than 2,000 students in Alabama alone. Come join us as we read about this pioneer and advocate who embodied the ideals of the reformers who came before her. Books will be available at church or you may purchase your own copy online.

Summer Choir

Please come and sing with the choir. No previous experience is necessary, and there is no commitment other than for each individual Sunday. Summer Choir will meet at 8:45AM on these three Sundays:

July 16, July 30, and August 13. For more information, please contact Steve Wentz, steven.wente@cuchicago.edu.

Reformation Choral Commission

We are anxiously awaiting a new composition for choir and optional congregation in observance of the 500th anniversary of the Reformation. The text is by FSP member, David Rogner; setting by Robert Hobby. The impetus and funding was provided several years ago by Sara Dornacker; the composition will be dedicated to her memory.

Looking Ahead:

Christmas Concert

The annual Christmas Concert will be Sunday, December 17 at 4PM. The theme of the program takes its inspiration from the Reformation: the so-called King and Queen of Chorales, "Wake, Awake, for Night Is Flying" and "O Morning Star, How Fair and Bright." Several of the pieces will reference these landmark hymns. We hope you will put this date on your calendars.

Chicago Choral Artists

We are pleased to announce that Chicago Choral Artists will have a series of three concerts at First Saint Paul's in the coming year. The tentative dates are October 7, 2017, December 16, 2017, & April 7, 2018. These are part of their subscription series and will be ticketed events.

Chicago Choral Artists is the former James Chorale, which was conducted for many years by James Rogner, director of music at First Saint Paul's. In that time, rehearsals and many of their concerts were at First Saint Paul's. Several of the current singers of CCA were in the ensemble in those years. We are excited to renew the connection with this very fine choral group. We hope that many in the First Saint Paul's community will come out and support them.

First Saint Paul's is a stop on the 59TH DEARBORN GARDEN WALK on July 16!

“An annual tradition blooms again in the Near North neighborhood. Plans are underway for this year's 59th Dearborn Garden Walk, set for Sunday, July 16th, 2017 from 12pm-5pm. Beyond the beautiful gardens, included are: Dearborn Garden Walk Brochure with a map for a self-guided tour of the gardens, live music in select gardens, guided architectural walking tours of historic Dearborn Parkway, special gardening seminars and opportunities to talk with expert gardeners about gardening questions. For more information, or to purchase tickets for the afternoon, visit www.dearbornwalk.com.

TICKET ENTRY INCLUDES: Admission to 20 distinctive rear gardens, narrated architectural walking tour of historic, Dearborn Street Live jazz and classical performances in select gardens Gardening Seminars, and more! Tickets are $30.

First Saint Paul's will again host speakers for this annual event. We are excited to have our newly renovated patio on the tour this year, thanks to Henry Webb's Eagle Scout project. We will also provide a flower pot painting activity for all ages. Guided tours of the sanctuary will be offered from 3-5PM.

How can you be involved and help us welcome guests?

- Set up following Sunday morning fellowship, including setting up the portable screen, projector, chairs for lecture, and craft area following Summer Household Faith Nurturing.
- Greeters from First Saint Paul's to help welcome our speakers, guests, and keep refreshments stocked (drinks only).
- Take down and clean up following event at 5PM, including putting away chairs, leftover refreshments, projector, screen, and general clean up.

We had quite a few visitors last year. This is a great opportunity to meet our neighbors and make new friends. Sign up on the bulletin board for the whole afternoon or for a couple of hours. All help is appreciated! Questions? Talk with Marlo Schulz-Kittl or email mschulz@fspauls.org.

Congratulations, Marlo & Chris!

Chris and I are so grateful for all the love and encouragement offered to us by our friends and family of First Saint Paul. We are so blessed to be part of this family and look forward to journeying with all of you.

—Chris and Marlo Schulz-Kittl, married May 27, 2017

Praying Through the Church

BECAUSE WE ARE A CHURCH FAMILY, a community of faith, we have a concern for one another, a concern that is expressed on Sunday mornings, as we pray for members of our church family ‘by name’.

WE PRAY FOR ONE ANOTHER remembering the words of St. Paul the Apostle to Timothy, “I urge then, first of all, that requests, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for everyone...” and the promise of our Lord Jesus Christ, “Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.”

WE ALSO ENCOURAGE members and friends of the congregation to make their prayer requests, births, illnesses, deaths, anniversaries, special occasions for intercession or thanksgiving, known to the pastor, preferably before the Sunday morning services, but in cases of emergency, right up to the service time.

THE FOLLOWING FRIENDS & MEMBERS of our church family will be remembered in the services of worship during the months of March & April:
